New Gate

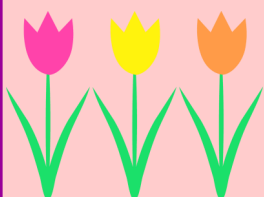

You may have noticed that the new gate has been fitted. In order to come to Reception you will need to press the buzzer and then we can let you in. If there is no response please wait, it could be that the Office is empty for a moment. To get out again I will watch the screen in the office and then buzz you out. Alternatively there is a gate release button next to the steps of Oak classroom. Please bear with me while I get used to it though!

A Note from the PTA

Dear All

The next PTA event is planned for Sunday 6th March (Mothering Sunday). The event is a 'Big Breakfast' at Vowchurch Hall 10-12. The idea is to treat Mum to breakfast that she didn't have to cook or do the washing up afterwards. There will be Sunday papers and magazines available so that the whole family can relax as breakfast is prepared and there will be badge making to keep the children entertained. We also hope to have gifts for the children to give to the Mums as they arrive. Please tell your friends and family and encourage people to come along and please try and get a poster put up. We would really appreciate some volunteers to help on the day with preparing the hall, cooking (particularly men!), clearing tables, washing up etc. If you can help please could you let myself, Claire (07939038083), Beth Powell or Cheryl know. We would really like some of the children to help out with waiting tables so volunteers for this would also be appreciated. Alternatively join us at the next PTA meeting on Thursday 25th Feb, 8pm at the Bridge. I'm looking forward to a fun morning, see you there.

Purple Sprouting Broccoli...

We have harvested the Purple Sprouting Broccoli from the garden and the children enjoyed it with their Roast Pork. It was a big hit!

Cake

You should have received an email about our cake policy for birthday cakes, please can you ensure that you read it. Any questions please contact the Office.

3 MARCH 2016

WORLD BOOK DAY

Thursday 3rd March is World Book Day. We'd love all the children (and adults!) to dress up as their favourite book character on that day.

We'd also like to invite parents, friends, grandparents in, from 8:30am onwards, for a 'Literary Breakfast' where you'll be able to share books and enjoy a croissant and some orange juice with the children.

At 9:30am we will then hold a special 'Book Day Assembly' which parents are welcome to stay to, if they wish. If you'd like to bring along your favourite book to talk about briefly in the assembly that would be lovely; it could be a book you loved as a child, or a favourite book you've read as an adult.

Please don't hesitate to get in touch if you have any queries or want some inspiration for dressing up ideas, or you can have a look here: <http://www.worldbookday.com>
