New Staff Appointment

Recently I wrote to you explain that we have advertised for two new posts for September due to the expansion of the school and sadly, Miss Smith's decision to move on from Michaelchurch at the end of the school year. This week we are holding interviews for these two posts. Yesterday we interviewed four very strong candidates for the Early Years post. Due to the strength of candidates it was a very tricky decision but we offered the post to a lovely lady Mrs Rebbeck. She has many years teaching experience in both Early Years and KS1 in England and Wales and is currently working with preschool children within a school context.

We're really excited that she has agreed to join our team and think she will fit perfectly into Michaelchurch. Next week I'll update further about outcomes of the other post.
